

UX220 Assignment 2

In the previous assignment I set goals 5 years into the future. In this assignment I took a look back in time. After considering numerous activities and accomplishments that I was involved in over the last few years that required consistent effort and contribution of some kind, I came up with these 5. Although some did come off of my resume, this is my attempt trying to discover the path I am already on and how it supports my goals and overall betterment.

HIGHSCHOOL: A CHRONICLE

1) What was it that you did?

-I graduated highschool and obtained my OSSD from St. Mother Teresa Catholic Academy in Scarborough, ON.

2) When did you do it?

-I graduated highschool about 2 years ago now as I am a 2nd year.

3) What was good about it?

-I graduated highschool not only with honor, a geography award, and respect from my community because I did so in an area many individuals who are similar to me don't.

4) What was your favourite memory of it?

-I have too many amazing highschool memories to pick out a singular favourite. The overall experience was one wild ride from beginning to end being honest.

5) What didn't you enjoy about it?

-The years/times I can now look back and say were big wastes of time. Especially now that I recognize the importance and value of it.

6) Give your experience a letter "grade"! -B For the most part enjoyable

THE BAHI INSTITUTE

1) What was it that you did?

-I became a Junior Youth Animator, I volunteered by forming my own junior youth group within my community, accumulated over 420 volunteer hours to date, and was put in charge of conducting weekly meetings and activities for the members who resided near my Pop's in North York, ON.

2) When did you do it?

-I have volunteered my time and efforts towards it since summertime 2015.

3) What was good about it?

-I got to create change right in my Pop's area where I was living at the time, made a difference in many children's lives, and made friendships that will God willing last forever.

4) What was your favourite memory of it?

-I again have too many amazing memories to pick out a singular favourite. The overall experience was one great learning opportunity.

5) What didn't you enjoy about it?

-The times I would try to run programming and the children were too much for me to handle at times.

6) Give your experience a letter "grade"! -B For the most part enjoyable

OLD NAVY

1) What was it that you did?

-I became an Old Navy Sales Associate at Scarborough Town Centre.

2) When did you do it?

-I worked there from October 2016 to August 2017.

3) What was good about it?

-As a sales associate I was responsible to provide a variety of services; such as helping customers pick out items, ringing up their purchases, and controlling the whole sales floor. I also used cash registers to process transactions and was responsible for keeping track of all the money inside. Apart from learning all the technical training I would later use on future jobs, it also helped me develop my personal sense of fashion hence the designer I am today.

4) What was your favourite memory of it?

-Christmas time was a great time over at Old Navy in STC. I had some pretty brief but beautiful interactions with customers from helping them find fits to cashing them out and chatting it up with them. This really helped me get used to talking to those I didn't already know prior to doing so.

5) What didn't you enjoy about it?

-The times I would have to control the floor mostly by myself along with fixing clothes customers JUST messed up. It would get irritating after a while.

6) Give your experience a letter "grade"! -C It was ok

FOCUS ON YOUTH

1) What was it that you did?

-I became a Camp and the Media Team Coordinator for the organization called Focus On Youth.

2) When did you do it?

-I started out going to summer camp as a young camper then as I grew up, the camp director saw me as an aspiring leader so he hired me in my grade 10 summer to be a camp counsellor at my highschool over the summer. The next year after that, I was promoted to being a Media Team member. The year after, I became coordinator of Media Team and got to form a strong team I later then dispersed across the city to do great things. Then this last summer I upgraded to coordinating one of the entire Footsteps to Success summer camps in the North York, which is one of those that the camp director holds closest to his heart and that I attended when I was younger.

3) What was good about it?

-Being the coordinator of the FOY Media Team provided me with a great deal of experience working with DSLR cameras along with video and sound editing. In 2018 I was in charge of my Media Team profiling summer camps apart of the FOY program located all over Toronto. This included taking photos and footage of the campers and staff, conducting interviews, creating videos, editing, and publishing blogs. In 2019 I became coordinator for the entire camp at St. Timothy Catholic School for the summer.

4) What was your favourite memory of it?

-Children, children, children. Children just warm my heart and inspire me for a better future so every single authentically real moment I had with campers I will treasure forever.

5) What didn't you enjoy about it?

-The times when some of the kids, trips, or just any plans in general did not go to plan or act out right. Still the fun never stops. Until it does.

6) Give your experience a letter "grade"! -A for AMAZING!

DUDE I WAS IN "THE BAND"

1) What was it that you did?

-I joined my school's instrumental band and have played for school and community events multiple times. Have also gone on a few great music-related trips.

2) When did you do it?

-I joined February 2014 and was apart of the band until June 2018.

3) What was good about it?

-After joining band, I had the pleasure to play for my school and my community at events multiple times. Have also gone on a few great music-related trips.

4) What was your favourite memory of it?

-Christmas time was a great time over in the music room not to mention holiday events we played at. However my favourite band memory has to be playing at Canada's Wonderland and then getting to go on rides with my fellow members after.

5) What didn't you enjoy about it?

-The times I would have to control the floor mostly by myself along with fixing clothes customers JUST messed up. It would get irritating after a while.

6) Give your experience a letter "grade"! -B for the most part enjoyable!
